Gov. Parrison must have gotten Cleveland's rabbit foot.

Cole county did very well considering Kansas and Pennsylvania.

MR. BLAINE is the only man that saw the land slide-before it slid.

THE republican scratchers were abroad in the land of liberty in 1890.

THE soldiers will wait a long time for the dependent pension bill now. Mr. Lodge wont have nerve above a whisper. This election is made lonesome without the shadow of Ben Butler being made visible. THE democrats owe everything to Reed and McKinley and nothing to their own statesmanship. It's all in a life time, and the fall will be remembered longer by reason of the thud.

MR. REED has gone home, While retirement contemplating the wreck he ought to hire a government mule to kick him a few hours every day. It would be a quiet celebration of the event and impressive. As for McKinley we will forgive him if he will get one of those "cheap men" that he never did like, to kick him for the rest of his life.

"SEVERAL leading leather and hide lealers of the United States met at Indianapolis yesterday and entered into an agreement as to the future grading of leather. It is understood that they will also attempt to advance if conditions are favorable, a few weeks hence."

If they have read the election returns they will hardly see anything 'fay orable'' in the outlook.

THE combination of Joseph R. Edwards and W. S. Pope, who took charge of the democratic county convention and proceeded to nominate a ticket and run the campaign, are PAINTINC being credited largely with the demoeratic victory. It is contended, if the ticket had been defeated, they would have had to carry the load, and as it won, they are entitled to the credit. We don't care much how you divide the honors boys-all we care to say, is: That it was a the same time the high character and "side swiper."

THE sad intelligence was wired here at 11:40 p. m. on Friday last, that Thos. B. Price, who was shot on the Lexington branch train on Thursday evening by Judge Higgins of Pettis county, died at Sichers hotel, at Sedalia, to which place he had been removed after the shooting. Thos. B. Price was a man of strong enough left to mention the Force bil force of character, but the last man in the world who would attempt to do anyone an injury, and we cannot view the shooting in any other light than murder on the part of his

Tom Price was raised in Cole county, and was universally beloved by all of our people. He was a good man and his removal from Jefferson City was always looked upon as a great loss to the community. That he should be shot down for some REPEAL the McKinley bill brethren, trivial cause is beyond our understanding. According to newspaper reports the shooting was the result of political differences. Both gentlemen were prominent democrats and wealthy. Owing to the critical condition of his mother, it was not considered prudent to bring the remains here, and he was therefore buried in

THE lessons of the election are many; for the republicans it is proof will ever get out of the democratic that within the party there are thousands who are opposed to an increased tariff; there are thousands who do not believe in the wholesale expulsion of members from congress simply because they are southern democrats; there are thousands who of the extreme kind that would have approved expelling all the democrats from congress, no doubt, but the only with the most extreme measures. It goes without saying that every The gentlemen who propose to democrat that was turned out deserved his fate, but as a governmenremedy a great evil and the masses of the republican party do not approve of it. So with the tariff. The republican party is the party of protection and will always remain so, but they can see no reason for imposing a higher tariff than that of the A few weeks ago we were resting past ten years, and think that the crease in the rate.
